Chapter 3

Anna's Banana Bread (from ATK)

from Anna Luce

	2?

Be sure to use very ripe, heavily speckled (or even black) bananas in this recipe. This recipe can be made using 5 thawed frozen bananas; since they release a lot of liquid naturally, they can bypass the microwaving in step 2 and go directly into the fine-mesh strainer. Do not use a thawed frozen banana in step 4; it will be too soft to slice. Instead, simply sprinkle the top of the loaf with sugar. The test kitchen's preferred loaf pan measures 8½ by 4½ inches; if you use a 9 by 5-inch loaf pan, start checking for doneness five minutes earlier than advised in the recipe. The texture is best when the loaf is eaten fresh, but it can be stored (cool completely first), covered tightly with plastic wrap, for up to 3 days.

- 1 fr34 cups unbleached AP flour
1 tsp baking soda
1 fr12 table salt
6 large very ripe banana
8 T unsalted butter, melted and cooled slightly
2 large eggs
fr34 cup packed light brown sugar
1 tsp vanilla extract
fr12 cup toasted and coarsely chopped walnuts
2 tsp granulated sugar

1. Adjust oven rack to middle position and heat oven to 350 degrees. Spray 8½ by 4½-inch loaf pan with nonstick cooking spray. Whisk flour, baking soda, and salt together in large bowl.

2. Place 5 bananas in microwave-safe bowl; cover with plastic wrap and cut several steam vents in plastic with paring knife. Microwave on high power until bananas are soft and have released liquid, about 5 minutes. Transfer bananas to fine-mesh strainer placed over medium bowl and allow to drain, stirring occasionally, 15 minutes (you should have ½ to ¾ cup liquid).

3. Transfer liquid to medium saucepan and cook over medium-high heat until reduced to ¼ cup, about 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat, stir reduced liquid into bananas, and mash with potato masher until fairly smooth. Whisk in butter, eggs, brown sugar, and vanilla.

4. Pour banana mixture into flour mixture and stir until just combined with some streaks of flour remaining. Gently fold in walnuts, if using. Scrape batter into prepared pan. Slice remaining banana diagonally into ¼-inch-thick slices. Shingle banana slices on top of either side of loaf, leaving 1½-inch-wide space down center to ensure even rise. Sprinkle granulated sugar evenly over loaf.

5. Bake until toothpick inserted in center of loaf comes out clean, 55 to 75 minutes. Cool bread in pan on wire rack 15 minutes, then remove loaf from pan and continue to cool on wire rack. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Chapter 4

Banana Bread

from Jonathan Emery

J. Wolff Banana Bread

1 loaf

90 min (30 min prep, 60 min bake)

This recipe makes one loaf of banana bread. Bake it in a J. Wolff bread baker — although other stone breadpans should work, presumably.

1			Preheat oven to 350 °F.
2	2-3	overripe bananas	Mash bananas in a mixing bowl until relatively smooth.
3	3/4 cup 1 tsp 2 tbs 1/3 cup	sugar vanilla oil (canola or olive) milk)	Beat sugar, vanilla, olive oil, and milk into the mashed bananas.
4	1 1/2 cup 1/3 tsp 3/4 tsp 3/4 tbs 1/4 tsp	flour baking soda salt ground cinnamon nutmeg	Add flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, and nutmeg. Gently mix just to incorporate — do not overmix.
5	1/2 cup	chocolate chips or walnuts	Fold in walnuts or chocolate chips (or both).
6	1/3 cup	boiling water	Pour in boiling water and mix until batter is smooth. It may be a bit watery.
7			Grease stoneware baker and pour in batter. Cook for 60-70 min (check frequently) or until a knife inserted into the bread comes out clean.

Brown Butter Rice Crispies Treats

from Cecile Sison

Brown Butter Rice Crispies Treats

12 Portions

15 minutes

Adapted from: <https://smittenkitchen.com/2009/11/salted-brown-butter-crispy-treats>

Grease an 8x8 pan, set aside

- |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | [ | ]cupRice Crispies (or generic puffed rice cereal)   |
| 2 | [ | ]pinchGourmet Kosher Sea Salt (preferably Redmond Real Salt, pink and coarse) Mix together in large bowl with your (cleaned hands) and set aside.   |
| 3 | [ | ]stickUnsalted Butter On medium low heat, in a 1 4quart or higher pot (I suggest one that has white enamel so you can see when the butter has browned), melt butter while watching carefully. It will melt, then foam, then turn clear golden and finally start to turn brown and smell nutty. Stir frequently with a wooden spoon, scraping the bottom of the pot to make sure nothing sticks (the brown flecks). Don't be impatient and keep watching because there is a small window from when the butter browns and when it starts to burn. |

4 [

.5]ozMini Marshmallows When there is a good amount of brown flecks, turn the oven to its lowest setting and pour in marshmallows. Immediately start stirring until the marshmallow mixture doesn't look lumpy. Add crispie/salt mixture into the marshmallow/butter mixture in the pot and begin incorporating (you can turn off the heat at this point if you want but it doesn't usually take more than 30 seconds to blend the crispies with the melted marshmallows). Once blended, pour the mixture into your greased pan.

Optional: sprinkle more salt on top

Let cool/set for at least a half an hour, cut into squares whenever you serve them.

| 1 | 2       | heads of cauliflower        | Remove stem and leaves, cut into bite-sized pieces  |
| 2 | 3/4 cup | baking flour                | Whisk until batter is smooth, toss with cauliflower, bake for 20 to 25 minutes (until lightly browned)  |
|   | 1 cup   | water                       |   |
|   | 1/2 tsp | garlic powder               |   |

|   | 1/4 tsp | ground black pepper         |   |
| 3 | 2 tbsp  | butter                      | Melt butter in saucepan over medium heat, remove from heat and add pepper sauce and honey. Toss with lightly browned cauliflower. Return cauliflower to oven and bake an additional 10 minutes. |

Chapter 11

Gateau Basque

from Matthew Tayler

Gateau Basque

8

2 hours

This delicious almond flour, pastry cream cake is adapted from the recipe of Basque-native Gerald Hirigoyenis, owner of the restaurants Fringale and Pastis in San Francisco.

1	2 qty.	egg yolks
	1/4 cup	sugar
	3 tbsp	flour
	1 1/4 cups	milk
	1 bean	vanilla

For the pastry cream, split vanilla bean length-wise. Begin warming milk and vanilla bean in saucepan over low heat to later bring to a boil. In the bowl of a stand mixer, beat egg yolks and sugar together until frothing. Continue mixing, slowly add in flour and mix until combined. Remove bowl from mixer and set convenient to warming milk. Bring milk to boil and remove vanilla bean. Immediately upon boiling, remove from heat and begin pouring half the milk into the flour, egg, and sugar mixture. Blend with a whisk. Bring the remaining milk to a boil. Immediately upon boiling, to whisk in the contents of the mixing bowl into the saucepan, and continue stirring over heat for 1 minute. Remove from heat and allow to begin cooling.

- 2      8 tbsp.      unsalted butter
          1 cup        sugar
          2 qty.        egg yolks
          1 tbsp.       rum
          2 tsp.        almond extract
          2 tsp.        vanilla extract
          2 tsp.        Pastis liqueur, e.g. Pernod pinch        salt
          1 1/2 cups    flour
          1/3 cup       ground almonds (in coffee grinder, e.g.)
          1 tsp.        baking powder
          1 qty.        egg, beaten

In stand mixer with the paddle attachment, beat the butter and sugar together until well creamed. Add the egg yolks one at a time, and continue beating well after each addition. Add rum, almond extract, pastis, vanilla extract, and salt. Add dry ingredients: flour, almond powder, and baking powder. Ingredients should mix on low speed to form a dough. Remove bowl from mixer and form the dough into 2 even balls, cover with plastic wrap, and refrigerate for 1 hour or more.

Later, preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Butter and dust a 9-inch round cake pan with flour. On a flour-dusted work surface, roll balls of dough into 9-inch and 11-inch circles. Take the 11-inch circle, and transfer to the cake pan, and gently press the dough down into the sides of the pan. Take pastry cream prepared in step 1 and spread in an even layer on top of first layer of pastry dough.

Drape 9-inch circle over the cake pan, on top of the pastry cream, to form the top layer of the cake. Firmly seal in the filling by pinching the edges together and then trim off any uneven edges. Brush the top of the cake with a beaten egg.

Bake until golden brown, 40 to 45 minutes. Set aside to cool for 10 minutes before inverting onto a cooling rack. Turn the cake right side up and let it cool completely.

Transfer to a serving plate, and serve at room temperature.

Homemade Baked Mac and Cheese

from Borchuluun Yadamsuren

Homemade Baked Mac and Cheese

12 servings

20 min

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350F. Lightly grease a large 3 qt or 4 qt baking dish and set aside. Combine shredded cheeses in a large bowl and set aside. Cook the pasta one minute shy of al dente according to the package instructions. Remove from heat, drain, and place in a large bowl. Drizzle pasta with olive oil and stir to coat pasta. Set aside to cool while preparing cheese sauce. Melt butter in a deep saucepan, dutch oven, or stock pot. Whisk in flour over medium heat and continue whisking for about 1 minute until bubbly and golden. Gradually whisk in the milk and heavy cream until nice and smooth. Continue whisking until you see bubbles on the surface and then continue cooking and whisking for another 2 minutes. Whisk in salt and pepper. Add two cups of shredded cheese and whisk until smooth. Add another two cups of shredded cheese and continue whisking until creamy and smooth. Sauce should be nice and thick. Stir in the cooled pasta until combined and pasta is fully coated with the cheese sauce. Pour half of the mac and cheese into the prepared baking dish. Top with remaining 2 cups of shredded cheese and then the remaining mac and cheese. In a small bowl, combine panko crumbs, Parmesan cheese, melted butter and paprika. Sprinkle over the top and bake until bubbly and golden brown, about 30 minutes. Serve immediately.

Instructions: In a large pot, warm the oil over medium heat. Add the onion and the salt, stir and cook for 3 minutes. Add the jalapeño, ginger, and garlic then cook for 2 minutes. Lastly, add the spices (garam masala, cumin, curry, paprika, cayenne) and the tomato paste then stir together and cook for 2 more minutes.

Pour the cans of diced tomatoes with their juices and 1 cup vegetable broth into the pot. Bring to a boil and cook for 10 minutes, stirring intermittently.

Reduce heat to a simmer then stir in the coconut milk and chickpeas. Cook until heated through. Serve warm with brown basmati rice, fresh cilantro, plain yogurt and naan. Leftovers can be stored in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 3 days.

I've tried making this recipe in a hot pot with mixed results. I think it still works better on the stove. Even still, the recipe is very easy to make despite the long list of ingredients.

                 remove moisture, and cut into cubes.
- to
taste      salt

. In a large pot or dutch oven, sautee the onions and carrots together in about 1 tbsp oil until they are soft. Season with salt to taste and add curry powder. 2. Using a small blender or mortal and pestle, combine the jalapenos, ginger, and garlic together with a pinch of salt until a coarse paste forms. 3. Add this paste to the pot with the carrots and onions and continue cooking until fragrant. 4. Add diced tomatoes, crushed tomatoes, coconut milk, and peanut butter. Bring to a boil and reduce to a simmer, stirring to ensure that the peanut butter is completely incorporated. 5. Once the peanut butter is fully incorporated, remove from heat and blend using an immersion blender until smooth. 6. Taste the resulting soup and adjust salt, curry powder, and peanut butter as needed. The soup should be spicy, but not overwhelmingly so, and you should be able to taste the peanut but it should not be sweet. 7. Add tofu to the pot and stir. Bring the soup back to a simmer and cook tofu for 5-10 minutes. 8. Serve immediately with a crusty bread for dipping.
